PRESIDENTS REPORT

I've had nothing much to do this month so my report is very brief, so I will just tell you what was discussed at the October committee meeting. We invited Michael Rock to the meeting to give us more information on the Veteran Rally to be held in WA in 2021, and after some discussion formally accepted the offer to host that rally.

The 2 Day Rally entry forms were finalised and are now on the website and in the November issue of Classic Vibrations. We probably have around 50 entries by now!

The term deposit was discussed and reinvested with P&N Bank.

The Bridgetown Show is ready to go, and I believe Eric has something to say about that later in his Property Officer's report. I've got some good weather booked, so we need as many bikes as possible to make their way down for the show. We'll be leaving from the Bunbury Speedway car park at 7.30am, so please be there on time, to be set up ready to go by about 9.30am.

We mentioned upcoming rides, I expect Capt. Leithal will talk about the mid-week ones later, and Bert will probably talk about resuming the Breakfast Rides.

Finally, we discussed and voted on the matter of changing an older member's status from ordinary member to Honorary Membership, more on that in general business.

CAPTAINS REPORT

Mid-week PM. 18/10/17

Good turnout for my first PM Ride for a while, we rode direct to The Crooked Carrot to partake of afternoon tea/lunch where we were joined by Rob H. and Faye C. who didn't join rest of ride.

The weather was pleasant riding Myalup/Harvey Rd, Government Rd, Hope Ave, South West Hwy, Mornington Rd, Martin Rd, Sandalwood Rd, South West Hwy, Partridge Rd and Marriott Rd. Just when I was thinking how good is this John Churchill and I arrived at junction of Forrest Hwy to discover no bikes following.

After waiting for a while I decided I better return to see if anything had happened (my worst nightmare) when Neville G. arrived to say he was just going to get his trailer because Carty had broken down, so we might as well continue on home. Thanks to everyone who helped out on the day especially Neville the broken bike pickup man and John Churchill who waited with me.

Busso Mid-week Ride 18/10/17.

There was a good rollup for the ride 16 Members and 3 visitors. It was decided on a ride to Donnybrook and my English gentleman friend, John, volunteered to lead the ride on a course of his choosing.

We set off along Marine Terrace winding our way to Layman Rd, straight on at the Tuart Dr roundabout (it was here that I left the ride to get ready for my trip to Albany the next day) crossed over Bussell Hwy into Wonnerup South Rd, Princefield Rd, Ludlow Hithergreen Rd, Tutunup Rd, Capel Tutunup Rd, Goodwood Rd to Donnybrook for morning tea.

After the break, the riders headed to Boyanup via Hurst Rd then along Boyanup West Rd, Bussell Hwy, Roberts Rd, Mallokup, Rd, Ludlow Rd, Tuart Dr, and Layman Rd to Busselton.

I have been reliably informed that it was a good ride with no mishaps or losing any one. Thanks John well done.

Peter Whiteside

Roy's Hamburger Run 22/10/17

Around 33 riders turned up on a fine but slightly overcast morning for the 4th running of Roy's Hamburger Run. Recollections of where we went and how we got there are a little hazy now as it was more than a week ago...alzheimer's is setting in!

The morning tea stop was at the deli in Dardanup, and we were under strict instructions from Capt. Leithal, even though she was on Rottneest, not to eat too much as Muriel always puts on a pretty big feast! As usual, a big crowd stayed on for lunch, and Muriel did us proud, ably assisted by the club ladies and Dave (Jarvis)? Who burned the burgers just enough! -up.

Thanks again to Muriel for having us invade her home, Leigh and Janet who started us off from Eaton, Eddie for going back-up and everyone who turned out for another brilliant day with the Indian Harley Club. Richard Clark

N.B. John received a phone call prior to Roy's Ride from a confused elder of the club who was chewing the fat with another elder member about the ride because we already had this ride in early September. Eventually the penny dropped when John explained that the Spring Rally went to Muriel's as will Roy's ride. DOH!

Mid-week AM. 25/10/17. 14 Riders, 1 Passenger.

Unfortunately, due to illness I was unable to join the ride this day so I diligently printed some route sheets for John to distribute.

Alas, no-one had a route sheet holder! Neville G volunteered to memorise the route which I thought was a good ride to Dunsborough via Jindong, Kalgoorup, Metricup and Yallingup. However, a bit of confusion at a cross roads saw the group arrive at a No Thru Rd at which time it was raining so Neville headed straight for Dunsborough for a well-deserved morning tea.

Reminder

Just a reminder that the PM rides scheduled for January, February and March will become AM rides departing from Pratt Rd at 0900. This change was trialled last year for hot summer months and was popular so will continue in 2018.

Christmas AM Ride

Although it is only a couple days after Christmas, the AM ride on December 27th will remain. This ride will be fairly long with no back

As this is the last newsletter for the year I would like to wish everyone a "MERRY CHRISTMAS & A HAPPY NEW YEAR."
