Membership Fees

It is concerning that even after many months of advising members of the deadline of 30th September for membership fees, as of our last committee meeting there are 62 current members who have not renewed their membership. If you haven't paid yet please take this as reminder to those who have not yet paid to action this item. The membership fees account for most of our income it is important they are paid prior to deadline which was at the end of last month.

Upcoming Events

Leith and Bert have finalised the next year (2019) calendar of the events which is now available.

Bridgetown Show

24th November. John Keenan has kindly volunteered to organise the ride down to Bridgetown we are seeking a good turnout of old bikes and encourage everyone to support this event. I have given John 25 free passes to the show please get in early for the passes. The Bridgetown Show secretary requested we stay to 4pm this year before leaving apparently, we started leaving at 3 pm last year closely followed by the vintage cars, after much discussion re requirements of concessional licenses and distance to travel on slow bikes the show committee agreed we can leave by 3 pm. Please respect their wishes.

Club Merchandise

We are about to purchase some more club uniforms at a cost of approximately $2400. This is a significant expense for the club and would encourage members to see Wilma to obtain your club uniform/merchandise.

Obsolete Rally Timing Gear

As we have had no interest from any prospectus buyers for our old club timing gear the committee decided that the club will donate the equipment to the "Relay for Life" Charity.

Machine Badges

The club has run out of machine badges, the treasurer tabled at the committee meeting a quotation for the badges at $1130 for 20, ($56.00 each) or $1318 for 30. ($46.00 each) It was agreed to seek expressions of interest at the next general meeting to gauge demand before proceeding further. Glenda volunteered to bring a badge to the meeting to show members what they look like.

Reflective Tape

Have asked Eric to put some reflective tape at the road entrance to the motorcycle club to assist drivers at night to identify the turn-off.

CAPTAINS REPORT 10/18

Mid-week PM Ride

Went to Potter Gorge via Pile Road to be greeted by Leith & Margaret with afternoon tea beside the water. On the way there, Russell saved a turtle on the road by putting it back in the ditch. Apart from that the ride was nice and quiet with low traffic on the road. We got to Wellington Dam Leigh wanted to go to the quarry. We got to Potters Gorge someone headed for the BMX tracks which cause the piped piper effect. Leith & Margret where waiting on the other side.

After, we went home via Honeymoon Pool. Another nice day out.

Joe's Argyle Run

Watching the weather, only small drizzle to deal with. So off to Argyle to meet Joe's family and see his bikes & shed. A magic place, all in green. We had a talk to, with his daughters about the old days and helping their dad working on the bikes.

A cuppa & cake before the run started keeps the wheels on the ground. First stop Brookhampton Hall built late 1800s if only the walls could talk. Next stop was Preston Shop for a stop and more solving the world's problems, then back to Joe's house where the girls brought out the food for lunch.

Lovely spread Erica thanked us for seeing them but really it should have been us thanking their hard work for setting up the day. The day ended with some drizzle but a good day to out.

Busso Mid-week Ride 17/10/18

16 members turned out for the ride on day with clear skies and a promise of good weather, Min 13C Max 21C you can't get better than that!

So we headed down to Boyanup for morning tea where we enjoyed coffee, pies, goodies and a chat. From there we split up a bit, Bunbury boys heading there way the rest headed home via Railway Rd, Boundary Rd, Gavins Rd, Stirling Rd, Ludlow N Rd, Tuart Dr, Layman Rd to Busselton, by the time I got to Busselton I only had one rider behind me the rest had split off at various turns going their own way home.

A good ride on a good day.

Peter W

Bunbury Mid-week Run

16 riders turned up for the Greenbushes Bakery a little long as 170km to get to the bakery. Should have a 10 minute stop at Balingup and give Leigh a 10 minute head start along the Blackwood River. The ride was sometimes a little cool but better than stinking hot. Got to the bakery lovely spot and he bakes in the back room and bought out some nice sauce to go with the pies.

All good no break downs and a leisurely ride home. Another top day riding round the Southwest.

Bert's Mystery Run

What a top day to be out on a run. A good turn out, the route took us through Treendale, Burekup then to Collie and a stop at Minninup Pool just about hot enough for a swim, where Leigh & Margaret were waiting for us with morning tea. Ryan's Bridgestone has a few electrical problems so that went on the trailer. From there went to Dardanup Bakery for the finish the run. Thanks to Bert, Margaret & Leith for day out.

Albany Hillclimb

A good turnout from IHC for this years hillclimb. Saturday morning was pouring down with rain not looking good but did clear up for the poker run. Long & short route was passing each other Kenny started on the short and finished on the long course. A nice day out on the bike.

The hillclimb was different as we had a very scenic course overlooking the bay. It was good that you had your side of the road so no one can stop in front of you. A lovely twisty road caught a few people out as jumping on the brakes to pull you back and the wind changed your line as well all good fun. All up a good weekend spent in Albany.

Mid-week Ride Busso 7/11/18

Another top day without rain Pommy John was the lead scout and lead us around the back roads to the White Elephant Gnarabup Beach for lunch then to the water falls of Margaret River. Then back to Busselton for the finish. Poor Terry was a no show due to breaking his wrist, doing gardening could be a good time to stop this. Get well soon.

John McDermont Solo & Sidecar Run

Kick off at 9 o'clock 3 sidecars out for the big trophy & sheep station. All up 100km, 50km to Brunswick Bakery then meandered back to the BMCC Clubroom to finish. A nice cool day very nice for a ride. All up a good day out.

John & Cate Coleman won the event

Neil Nicolao got the Solo rider.

TIDDLERS RUN 2018

Well this year's Tiddlers Run has been run and won. Won by Ricky Fraser on his BSA. 30 Starters with 29 finishers. The tiny Benelli of John Olsen, tiring after a few kilometres.

Some great small capacity machines having a well-deserved run. A short run to Steve William's place in Dardanup West to have a browse at his collection of cars, bikes, speedway and collectables. Thanks to Steve and family for your kind invitation.

A bit longer run brought us to Crooked Brook Forrest with an unexpected length of gravel on the way. A kilometre of gravel took us into the Crooked Brook Forrest area, a lovely place to have a walk around.

A short ride back to Boyanup for lunch, a sausage sizzle followed by a trophy presentation and a raffle. The raffle of a lovely Rudge print was won by Lorraine MacDonald. The raffle proceeds will go towards the seeding fund for the National Veteran Rally in 2021.

Ricky Fraser being the overall winner on the day, was presented with a trophy made by Rob Giles and a bottle of wine. Thanks to Brian Cartwright for doing the backup and Shaz Rudler, Sue Lawson and Kelly Owen for doing the lunch.
